Maxim's Bakery Salmonella Class Action

Statutory Declaration

I _____ SOLEMNLY DECLARE that:

1. I (or the claimant whom I represent) was resident of British Columbia on April 11, 2002.

2. I (or the claimant whom I represent) consumed a Maxim's Bakery product in August or September 2000 and suffered personal injuries as a result.

3. I (or the claimant whom I represent) have not already accepted a settlement in respect of this Salmonella outbreak in British Columbia.

4. Where I am (or the claimant whom I represent) making a claim for special damages, I verify that the nature and amount of those special damages are as set out in the attached Claim Form.

5. I act in the following Capacity:

☐ Parent ☐ Guardian ☐ for myself

I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same legal force and effect as if made under oath.

I understand that the claim for compensation will be reviewed and that I may be contacted to discuss the claim or to provide additional information.

NOTE: Where a claimant is a minor (less than 19 years old), either parent or a legal guardian or the Public Guardian and trustee if the minor is a ward, may sign the claim form and make this Statutory Declaration for the minor claimant.

Where a claimant is a mentally incapable adult, the adult's legally appointed personal representative may sign the claim form and make this Statutory Declaration for the mentally incapable adult.
